Style Report

Spring 2016

1 Nostalgic Nest
Porcelain tiles inspired by traditional materials and whiskey tones were reminiscent of the classic interiors of the grand old days with traditional wood looks beginning to reemerge and luxurious marble looks continuing in popularity.

2 All Buttoned Up

The newest look in tile takes a cue from the textile industry with the look of tweed and wool. Presented in modern charcoal colors, this refined and sophisticated look pairs perfectly with mid-century modern interiors.

Spa Stones

3

With increasingly hectic lives, subtle stone looks bring the serenity of nature indoors and create a spa-like retreat with delicate, rolling veins in soft earth tones or calming grey tones.

4 Rescued & Raw
The look of aged concretes, vintage and reclaimed woods, rustic bricks and industrial metals was softened with ornate patterns and embossing.
